

Don't just sit there. Have a Pap test every 2 years.

Regular Pap tests save more than one thousand women a year from cervical cancer. If you're due for a Pap test, stop putting it off. Make an appointment with your doctor today.

National Cervical Screening Program
A joint Australian, State and Territory Government initiative

NSW Cervical Screening Program
www.csp.nsw.gov.au

